

Why Attend the 14th Annual ILTCI Conference?

Each year the annual conference attracts a diverse attendance from the insurance, financial and various business sectors. A main objective of the conference is to provide an information sharing and collaborative environment for insurance regulatory authorities, insurance educational institutes, actuaries and other special groups with interest in Long Term Care Insurance. It is the organization's aim to ensure that the relationships and cooperative arrangements that are formed at these events will continue to blossom into ongoing endeavors to benefit the industry.

The Annual Intercompany LTCI Conference also includes a two-day exhibition, where you will have access to their products and services and a chance to speak with one of their representatives.

Throughout the conference you have a chance to:

- Education: 42+ sessions featuring a high level of education and access to all the different 'parts' of the LTCI industry. Excellent mix of content with exceptionally qualified speakers.
- Specialized Training: CLTC Master Class, SOA Professionalism Course, Social Media, Online Sales, and more to be announced.
- Networking: Meet, collaborate and learn from more than 800 attendees and long-term care industry experts. Learn from best practices shared by the leaders in the industry.
- Discover the Future: Advances in technology are evolving to assure LTC patients receive needed services. Visit our Exhibition Hall and gather information on products and services. See what 2014 and beyond means to LTC & LTCI.

Experience What Other ILTCI Conference Attendees are Saying:

- "I thought this was one of the best conferences ever"
- "Overall great opportunity for learning and meeting others in the industry"
- "Such a dedicated, quality achieving group!"
- "Excellent conference at a very important time in our industry's history"

If you are in the following industry sectors you can't afford to miss this event:

Keynote Speaker - Chris Gardner

Few stories are as inspiring and moving as motivational speaker Christopher Gardner's. Surmounting acute obstacles throughout his life, Christopher Gardner is an avid professional speaker, sharing with his audiences the keys to self-empowerment, and the message of beating the odds and breaking cycles. Gardner is also a passionate philanthropist committed to many charitable organizations.

The amazing story of Gardner's life was published as an autobiography, The Pursuit of Happyness, (Amistad/Harper Collins) in May 2006, and became a New York Times and Washington Post #1 bestseller. In paperback, the book spent over twenty weeks on the New York Times bestseller list and has been translated into fourteen languages. Gardner was also the inspiration for the movie "The Pursuit of Happyness," released by Columbia Pictures in December 2006. The movie is the #2 all-time domestic grossing drama. Will Smith starred as Gardner and received Academy Award, Golden Globe and Screen Actors Guild nominations for his performance. Gardner was an associate producer on the film.

Gardner's second book, Start Where You Are: Life Lessons in Getting From Where You Are to Where You Want to Be was published in 2009.

Born February 9, 1954 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Christopher Paul Gardner's childhood was marked by poverty, domestic violence, alcoholism, sexual abuse and family illiteracy. Gardner published his autobiography out of a desire to shed light on these universal issues and show they do not have to define you. Gardner never knew his father, and lived with his beloved mother, Bettye Jean Triplett (nee Gardner), when not in foster homes. Gardner is indebted to Bettye Jean for his success as she provided him with strong "spiritual genetics" and taught him that in spite of where he came from, he could chart another path and attain whatever goals he set for himself.

Gardner joined the Navy out of high school and then moved to San Francisco where he worked as a medical research associate and for a scientific medical supply distributor. In 1981, as a new father to son Christopher Gardner Jr., he was determined to find a career that would be both lucrative and fulfilling. Fascinated by finance, but without connections, an MBA or even a college degree, Gardner applied for training programs at brokerages, willing to live on next to nothing while he learned a new trade. Chris Jr.'s mother left and Gardner, despite his circumstances, fought to keep his son because, as he says, "I made up my mind as a young kid that when I had children they were going to know who their father is, and that he isn't going anywhere."

Gardner earned a spot in the Dean Witter Reynolds training program but became homeless when he could not make ends meet on his meager trainee salary. Today, Gardner is involved with homelessness initiatives assisting families to stay intact, and assisting homeless men and women who are employed but still cannot get by. It is estimated that 12% of the homeless population in the United States is employed; in some communities that estimate is as high as 30%.

Gardner worked at Bear Stearns & Co from 1983-1987 where he became a top earner. In 1987 he founded the brokerage firm Gardner Rich in Chicago from his home with just $10,000. Gardner Rich LLC is an institutional brokerage firm specializing in the execution of debt and equity products transactions for some of the nation's largest institutions, public pension plans and unions.

Chris Gardner's aim, through his speaking engagements and media projects, is to help others achieve their full potential. His practical guidance and inspirational story have made him a frequent guest on CNN, CNBC and the Fox News Channel. He has been featured on "The CBS Evening News," "20/20," "Oprah," "Today Show," "The View," "Entertainment Tonight," as well as in People, USA Today, Associated Press, New York Times, Fortune, Entrepreneur, Jet, Reader's Digest, Trader Monthly, Chicago Tribune, San Francisco Chronicle, The New York Post and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, amongst others.

Specialized Education & Training

Future of the Industry

The long term care insurance industry is in a state of flux. Numerous companies have exited the market. Sales of long-term care insurance are on a downward trend. Distribution is shrinking. In-force premium increases dominate the headlines. This general session will focus on the present state of the industry, offer parallels to other industries who have weathered turbulent times and offer opinions and perspectives about what we all can do to reinvigorate this industry. This session will be held Tuesday, March 18th at 3:45pm.

Alzheimer's Disease: the What, the How and the Hope

This two-part session will include:

Alzheimer's - The Basics : This section explores: the symptoms and effects of Alzheimer's disease and other types of dementia; how Alzheimer's affects the brain; causes and risk factors; how to find out if it's Alzheimer's disease; the benefits of early detection; how to address a diagnosis of Alzheimer's disease; stages of the disease; treatment; hope for the future and ways the Alzheimer's Association can help.

Understanding the Latest In Alzheimer's Research: Every week there is something in the news about Alzheimer's research, treatments or prevention. Join Heather Snyder, PhD. of the Alzheimer's Association 's Medical and Scientific Relations team to hear the latest in what is real and promising in the fight against Alzheimer's. This session will be held Wednesday, March 19th at 9am.

CLTC Master Class

Harley Gordon will conduct a CLTC Master Class on Saturday, March 15 (8AM to 6PM) and Sunday, March 16 (8AM to 5PM). The 2-day course will review all the course material and prepare attendees to take the CLTC exam. There is no additional charge for the course material. There will be a $100 fee to cover the cost of the CE credits and CLTC exam (and one exam retake, if necessary) paid at the time of the test.

Attendees that pass the CLTC exam will receive their CLTC designation upon passing that test. The course will qualify each attendee for 12-15 hours of state insurance department CE credits (depending upon student's resident state) as well as for CFP/PACE credits (a $25 additional filing fee applies for recording CFP/PACE credits, if desired).

Regular full price tuition for the course is $1,365. However, the ILTCI Conference will be subsidizing the course fee for any attendees of the ILTCI Conference, for an additional fee of only $195.

Registration for the CLTC course can be completed when registering for the conference.

Advanced Sales & Marketing Program for CLTC Designated Professionals

There will also be an Advanced Sales & Marketing Program for CLTC Designated Professionals on Wednesday, March 19th, from 9:00am – 12:00 pm for only $49. The course will cover selling concepts that have changed how LTC insurance is sold and updated them and put them into sales and marketing ideas that will enhance your practice. Ways to talk to prospects that will connect you in ways not possible using existing sales principals. How to use Consultative Engagement, a sales philosophy that has changed how LTCi is sold.

Registration for the Advanced CLTC course can be completed when registering for the conference.

Producer Scholarships Available

The ILTCI Conference Association Board has decided to again offer a subsidized scholarship program this year for licensed insurance agents who are not home office employees.

This scholarship will provide $700 towards your individual registration fee of $995 for the 14th Annual Intercompany LTCI Conference at the Rosen Centre, Orlando, FL, March 16-19, 2014. This makes the scholarship registration fee only $295.

In addition, for conference attendees, there will be a pre-conference CLTC Master Class for only $195 additional which will provide 12-15 hours of CE and prepare the attendee to take the CLTC exam.

To apply for this scholarship, please complete and submit the PDF form or online application available on our website. They can be found under the Scholarship link at iltciconf.org.

2014 Conference Sponsorship Opportunities

By becoming a Sponsor, your company will gain valuable exposure to the LTCI decision makers, including virtually all of its top executives. ## About the ILTCI Conference

The Intercompany Long Term Care Insurance Conference Association, Inc. (ILTCI) is a non-profit, tax-exempt, educational, public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for public and charitable purposes.

The vision of the ILTCI is to create an environment for aging in America that includes thoughtful, informed planning that takes into account the most effective and efficient use of resources in addressing the risks and costs of long term care for all levels of American society.

The ILTCI was formed to:

- Provide educational events, including an annual conference, for representatives of the long term care insurance community and other strategic allies, including providers, public policy institutions, professional organizations, federal, state, and local government agencies, and the public.
- Provide a network and opportunities through which persons with an interest in long term care, long term care insurance, or long term care financing, can communicate and share information about skills and skill development, current and/or proposed methodology, tools, technology, and organizational issues.
- Increase public awareness of long term care needs and financing options.
- Foster research, reports, meetings, and workshops addressing funding mechanisms for long term care services.
- Foster alliances between public and private sectors to seek solutions for the catastrophic long term care risks facing American society and to lessen the costs borne by federal and state governments under current funding mechanisms.
- Foster alliances between public and private sectors to help educate the American public on the nature of long term care risks and their financial implications.
